Mr. Allen W. Dulles
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

After my usual book-hunting trip to London, Paris and several cities in Germany, I plan to go on to Vienna, Budapest, Bucharest, Sofia and Belgrade. I am not sure what books I will find but at least it should be an interesting trip, and I would like to compare these Iron Curtain countries with Russia, Poland and Czechoslovakia, which I visited in 1956.

I am coming to Washington the 19th and 20th of February to check with the State Department in connection with my trip, and I am wondering if I should see some one on your staff to advise me. I have an appointment at the U.S.I.A. at 10:45 on Friday the 20th; a tentative luncheon appointment with Admiral Rickover at 1 o'clock; a get-together with Walter Robertson at the State Department at 3:30, and a meeting with Mr. Pogue, who is working on General Marshall's biographical material at 5 o'clock. If your people are free at 2:30 I could come in then.

I await your further word, and extend cordial greetings,

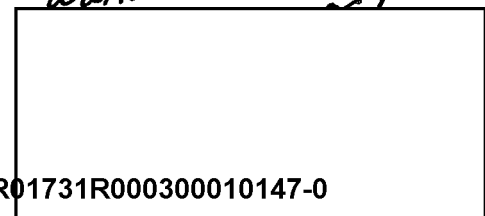

Sincerely,

Elliott B. Macrae
